Committee Reports: Revolutionary War Veterans Memorial: Secretary Canavello is to check with the General Galvez Day and the Veterans Memorial Park Foundation to see if we can dovetail the dedication ceremonies into that day's events, as it would be more fitting to dedicate the memorial on the celebration of the siege.

Old Business: The End of Summer picnic was enjoyed by all who attended. It was suggested that perhaps we could have a second picnic during the year.

New Business:

First Vice President Washler passed out some of the recruitment brochures that he prepared. They will be placed in the genealogical library on the PSC campus. He also presented the web page that the Chapter now has. In it there is a link to our Facebook page. He showed the content that has been completed and the sections that are still being developed. In the future he hopes to have a page which will provide links to the patriot ancestors of the Chapter members (without disclosing the members' names).

First Vice President Washler presented part 1 of "10 Things You Don't Know About the American Revolution. At the November meeting he will present part 2.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned and President Lies then led the SAR Recessional and John Matthews gave the Benediction. The meeting concluded at 6:48 P.M.

Robert Canavello, Secretary
